

CALL TO JOIN THE UNION FOR CHANGE IN CAMEROON FOR 2025

UPC 2025

In response to the demands of the Sovereign People, a solemn appeal is made to the candidates selected for the presidential election, to the unsuccessful candidates, to all political parties, civil society associations and independent personalities to pool within a broad coalition around a Common Program for the Transition and Refoundation of Cameroon, carried by the PEOPLE'S CONSENSUS CANDIDATE

The PEOPLE'S CONSENSUS CANDIDATE will be chosen from among the candidates for the presidential election who have a significant electoral base and who are committed to:

- 1- Promoting the attached Joint Programme for Transition and Refoundation and not the programme of their own political parties.
- 2- Leading the electoral campaign as the leader of a collegial team made up of all the members of the UPC 2025
- 3- Giving the people a voice by convening a National Conference and socio-professional Consultations whose resolutions will serve to flesh out the Common Program of Transition and Refoundation
- 4- Form a Government of National Unity of Transition and Refoundation to implement the Refoundation Program
- 5- Organize a constitutional referendum and general elections, including a two-round presidential election.
- 6- Have a single mandate of three to five years

Candidates, political parties, associations and personalities who join the Union for Change in 2025 are asked to return their signed commitment form as soon as possible to

COMMON PROGRAMME FOR TRANSITION AND REFOUNDATION

3 to 5 years to give a new Foundation for Cameroon

The Joint Transition and Refoundation Programme is divided into six priority areas:

1. POLITICAL PRIORITIES

- 1.1. Bringing peace and security to the country
- 1.2. Reconciling Cameroonians with themselves and their history
- 1.3. Exalting national consciousness and patriotism

2. COMPREHENSIVE AND INDEPENDENT AUDIT OF THE STATE

- 2.1. Auditing government income and expenses
- 2.2. Assessing the State's assets and liabilities
- 2.3. Making an inventory of natural resources and their use

3. INSTITUTIONAL REFORMS

- 3.1. Strengthening National Sovereignty and Review the Form of State.
- 3.2. Eradicating corruption and establishing good governance
- 3.3. Adopting a nationality code that fully integrates the Diaspora
- 3.4. Drawing up a consensual electoral code.

4. STRUCTURAL REFORMS OF THE ECONOMY

- 4.1. Strengthening economic sovereignty
- 4.2. Laying the foundations for an industrial and digital economy
- 4.3. Ensuring a better distribution of the fruits of growth

5. SOCIAL REFORMS

- 5.1. Reforming the education system
- 5.2. Removing gender-related social barriers
- 5.3. Implementing universal health coverage
- 5.4. Prioritising employment and vocational training for young people

6. PAN-AFRICANISM AND MULTIPOLAR DIPLOMACY

- 6.1. Actively participate in the process of unifying Africa
- 6.2. Conducting a resolutely sovereigntist and multipolar diplomacy

The details of these reforms will be defined during the National Meetings and the General Assembly, the resolutions of which will serve as a roadmap for the Transitional Government of National Unity
